INTOUCH SOLUTIONS CERTIFIED AS LEVEL THREE VEEVA SYSTEMS CONTENT PARTNER

KANSAS CITY (Oct. 6, 2015) – Intouch Solutions is proud to announce its level three certification status by Veeva Systems as a Veeva Web content partner. Intouch Solutions is one of only seven agencies worldwide to achieve level three certification. Veeva recognizes these agencies for their specialization and innovation in developing content for closed-loop marketing (CLM).

To achieve this status, Jessica Ralston, senior front end team lead, Chris Cooper, senior front end developer, and Brandon Gregory, front end architect, of Intouch Solutions dedicated more than 120 hours over the course of one week to become experts in Veeva’s CLM, Engage, and Approved Email software.

“We are proud of our team for achieving level three certification with Veeva,” said Faruk Capan, CEO of Intouch Solutions. “This status is yet another example of the dedication and exceptional work our team commits themselves to providing every day.”

Intouch Solutions began its partnership with Veeva in 2011. With a history of collaboration, Intouch Solutions is uniquely positioned to help Veeva clients take full advantage of the capabilities found with CLM, Engage and Approved Email software.

Intouch will begin work toward the highest Veeva certification tier, Level 4, as well as pursue individual developer certifications over the next month.
