INTOUCH SOLUTIONS PROMOTES RAPHAELA CRISTIANO-DAVIS TO VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

CHICAGO (December 1, 2016) – Intouch Solutions proudly announces the promotion of Raphaela Cristiano-Davis to vice president of finance. A leading marketing agency serving the pharmaceutical industry, Intouch has seen rapid expansion over the past five years and actively promotes experienced leaders from within the over 650-person firm.

Cristiano-Davis joined Intouch in 2009 as a financial account director and has since been an integral part of the company. Most recently, Cristiano-Davis served as a senior financial account director, where she focused on developing a team to handle billing, accounts receivable, revenue recognition and profitability. She also worked to improve the Intouch’s financial processes and provided ongoing support to the account team.

“Raphaela’s commitment to Intouch and her team are evident in every project she takes on, as is her passion for ensuring our company achieves financial growth,” said Faruk Capan, CEO. “Her dedication to our clients, as well as her strong leadership skills will benefit her as VP of finance. I’m proud to have her as a leader at Intouch.”

As vice president of finance, Cristiano-Davis continues to serve as the leader of her team. In addition, she focuses on assisting with contract and rate negotiation with clients. She also works closely with the client procurement teams to ensure the relationship remains transparent and strong.

“I am proud to step into my new role as VP of finance,” said Cristiano-Davis. “Intouch has truly been one of the best growth experiences of my life. I’m honored to work with such an amazing team and look forward to helping the company continue to achieve financial success.”

Cristiano-Davis earned her bachelor’s of science in accounting and finance from DePaul University.
