INTOUCH SOLUTIONS ANNOUNCES NEW YORK OFFICE MOVE, EXPANSION

NEW YORK CITY (OCTOBER 28, 2015) – Intouch Solutions, a marketing agency serving the pharmaceutical industry, has moved their New York offices to 469 Seventh Avenue in Midtown Manhattan. The move comes in response to rapid expansion at Intouch Solutions fueled by the acquisition of a number of major new clients. Employee count in the New York City office has increased by nearly five times since the beginning of 2014.

“We are thrilled with the success of our growing business in the New York office, and are delighted to move into this new location in Midtown,” said Faruk Capan, CEO of Intouch Solutions. “It’s exciting to see the growth of Intouch Solutions continue. With new and renovated offices in Kansas City, Chicago and New York City, we look forward to the future.”

Intouch Solutions previously occupied office space at 1001 Avenue of the Americas. The new space will encompass the entire 10th floor at 469 Seventh Avenue, totaling 17,000 square feet. With employee numbers growing from just a few, as of January 2014, to a current total of 41 and end-of-year projections approaching 50, Intouch Solutions found itself in need of additional space. With its close proximity to both Penn Station and Port Authority, the new office location is an ideal fit for visiting clients and recruiting employees from both New York and New Jersey.

“Intouch Solutions is a growing organization and a great fit for a reinvented Garment District,” said Eric Meyer, a senior managing director with Colliers International Tri-State. “Advertising, marketing, and digital media companies are increasingly taking space in the Garment District because of its central location, 24/7 activity, and wealth of shopping, hotels, and nightlife.”

The national headquarters of Intouch Solutions will continue to be located in Kansas City.
